Cowboy Training is Tough in Wisconsin

Cowboy training is tough here in Wisconsin.

We have a severe shortage of cow ponies, even our buckboards appear to be worn out.

We make do.

Those who graduate from the current class of Cowboys are tough. We train in all weather. Snow, hail, subzero temperatures. But when our Cowboys graduate? Well, they can handle just about anything.

This school is located in an undisclosed location.

WHAT PEOPLE SAY

“The essence of leadership is vision. You can't blow and uncertain trumpet.”

Father Theodore Hesburgh

Dad was a small town photographer in the days of B&W film: wedding, portrait, commercial, events, he did it all. I remember when I was small, sometimes he would set up the camera and I would be able to press the cable release for him. He showed me how to develop and print film. Dad's photography left me with some great memories. Later in life, I found myself drawn back to photography. I decided to pick up a camera. My dad has long since passed, but when I take a picture, I am connected with him. --

Every person has a story worth telling...

Whether a person spends a lifetime developing a skill , or someone who creates a mini museum in their front yard with antique cars, trucks, gas pumps and creates an atmosphere where it's forever 1939.

People are creative. The environment they create, the work they enjoy, tells
