If It Moves — It's Transportation

People have a strong emotional attachment to their favorite modes of transportation.

Nowadays, Transportation isn't the same as it was when I grew up in the 1950's and 1960's. Cars had names that inspired dreams of the 'Open Road'. The 'Hot' cars of the day were called 'Muscle Cars' with names like the Plymouth Road Runner, Dodge Charger, Pontiac GTO "Goat", Chevrolet Camaro Z28, Pontiac Firebird Trans-Am, Chevy Corvette, Ford Mustang, Pontiac Fire Bird, Ford Thunderbird, American Motors Javelin, Rebel, Matador – the list goes on and on. Everybody had a favorite.

These cars were preceded by such names in the early 1950's as the Olds Rocket 88 and the Hudson Hornet.

Cars were a matter of pride; they turned heads and made you sigh when you saw them. On sunny Saturdays you witnessed boys struggling to be men who looked like James Dean. They wore T-Shirts with a pack of cigarettes rolled up in their shirt sleeves and the girls wore Ray Ban sun glasses and scarves so their hair wouldn't get blown around.

If you weren't there, 'You were square'. You really missed out. It was an event.

Signs in downtowns everywhere said 'No Cruising'. Which everybody ignored.

These people were our 'Rebels'. We admired them.

This was a time when the words 'To Be Cool' meant something to aspire to.

BIOGRAPHY

WHAT PEOPLE SAY

*“The essence of leadership is vision. You can't blow and uncertain
trumpet.”*

Father Theodore Hesburgh

Dad was a small town photographer in the days of B&W film: wedding, portrait, commercial, events, he did it all. I remember when I was small, sometimes he would set up the camera and I would be able to press the cable release for him. He showed me how to develop and print film. Dad's photography left me with some great memories. Later in life, I found myself drawn back to photography. I decided to pick up a camera. My dad has long since passed, but when I take a picture, I am connected with him. --

Every person has a story

worth telling...
Whether a person spends
a lifetime developing a skill , or someone who creates a mini museum in their front yard with antique cars, trucks, gas

pumps and creates an atmosphere where it's forever 1939.
People are creative. The environment they create,
the work they enjoy, tells
a compelling story.
